

RELEASE DATE: 10/30/2006

THE MOJOMATICS

„SONGS FOR FARAWAY
LOVERS“

SNATCH!039

LP/CD

180g heavy vinyl, heavy cardboard sleeve, printed inner cardboard LP sleeve. CD with Bonus-Video of „No Place To Go“. LP/CD worldwide exportable except CD in ITALY - available LA VALIGETTA Records)

LP EAN 426011967039

CD EAN 426011967739

THE MOJOMATICS -SONGS FOR FARAWAY LOVERS

LP (180g) / CD (SNATCH!039)

With the MOJOMATICS new album the world stands still for a second, irritated by a rockn´roll star shining brighter than usually at the sky. The crusade started three years ago from the lovely alleyways of Venice. MojoMatt (guitar, vocs) and DavMatic (drums, percussion) are rollin´ on a wave of enthusiasm which can´t be found a second time down there. We´ve seen no other band beeing so much on the road playing tons of exciting shows all over Europe and winning the hearts of their audience. They are young, smart, joyful, have style and they know the trick and have the obsession to write songs which are timeless classics and would excite, no matter in what time they live. Revel the given minority status of rocknroll? Aural déjà-vu? We´re talking 2006 and the MOJOMATICS are here to entertain and live their dream, and are ready to fulfill aspirations given by the definition of rocknroll.

„Songs For Faraway Lovers“ is their second full length after various 45s and their highly acclaimed debut album "A Sweet Mama is Gonna Hoodoo Me". It is produced by themselves thru 2006. They took their whole songbook and entered recording sessions in the Adria lagoons, windy mountains and dusty basements to complete an impressive new album. Defined as blues encrusted punk tunes with a lot of rootsy pop harmonies and rambling´country-esque edges the MOJOMATICS pour out even more hooks on their second record and reveal their folk and blues roots with some typical american folky ballads. In every moment you got shaken by their agitated melancholia, in the next you feel the unrestless fresh fun they create out of their half century old influences. The pop sensibility on their walking blues trip thru the Mississippi Delta´s paths is a shelter of the storm of mindless puppets. On "Songs For Faraway Lovers " you find 12 cuts, 10 genuine songs and with "Stealin" and "Hard Travelin" two traditionals arranged by the MOJOMATICS.

If one two-men-band does sound like the full throttle New Orleans marching band, the MOJOMATICS do! They got the magic to make your eyes wet just listening to their tunes, they prove that nice guys who love what they do win in this hype-ridden world. The prize? Beeing on the road, seeing ordinary garage rock and roll hustlers stomp their feet, suicide girls dancing, and musicologists and other high-art connoisseur take their hats off. We´re dancin´ to their songs for a while, now it´s your turn. If you've missed them on the last tour, call it love on the rebound and join them on the way to nowhere.

Extensive touring thru
October-December 2006.
Check websites for dates.

Agencies:

Blitzstudio (IT)
Weird World (GER)
Jostone Traffic (F)
KissnRun (worldwide)

SIDE A

Why don't you leave me

No place to go

Right or Wrong

Leave this Town

The last Train

I'll be Back Home

SIDE B

That night in 1939

Stealin' Stealin'

Liquor Store Blues

A fall on the floor

Hard Travelin'

The Riverside

ALIEN SNATCH! RECORDS

Mörikeweg 1 74199 Untergruppenbach Germany

www.myspace.com/mojomatics

www.mojomatics.com

www.aliensnatch.com
records@aliensnatch.com